
A busy life.

Albert came home from the office. He was very tired. He had his dinner. He went to his bed. He was trying to sleep. His friend called him. He didn't want to talk because he was tired. He switched off his phone. He tried to sleep again. He again got a call on another phone. He was very angry. He didn't answer it. He sat down and had some water. Someone knocked on his door. He opened the door. His friends came with cakes and gifts. It was Albert's birthday. He forgot his birthday. He was very happy to see his friends. He said thank you. They had a party. Then Albert went to sleep.

Fruits and water

Emily goes to her office. She works for five days a week. She goes to buy groceries on weekends. On Saturday, she sat down to make a new list. Her mother asked her to buy water and apples at the grocery shop. Emily's mother was ill. She was prescribed to drink only distilled water. Emily bought water from the grocery shop. Emily ate apples for her breakfast. It keeps her healthy and active. Emily loved going grocery shopping. She went shopping with her younger brother. Emily never forgot to buy anything. She had a habit of making a list before going to the grocery shop. Emily cared for her mother a lot. She made sure that she did not forget to buy water and apples.

The flag of the USA

Jackson Roger lives in the USA. He is 8 years old. He loves his country. He likes painting flags. He loves to paint the USA flag because it has stars. It has three colors: red, blue and white. There are 50 stars on the flag. There are 13 stripes, 7 red and 6 white. Jackson has put many flags in his room. His room looks beautiful. His friends love to paint flags too. The USA flag looks attractive. The stripes go from left to right and up and down. Everyone should love their country. A flag is used as a symbol. Jackson likes studying about flags of different countries. He wins many painting competitions. He is appreciated by his parents and teachers.

Mathew needs friends.

Mathew was a good boy. He went to school daily. He wore a clean uniform. He completed all his homework and projects. He scored good grades. His parents loved him. But he had no friends. He was very thin, so they made fun of him. Mathew was very upset. Nobody talked to him. He ate his lunch alone. One day, his teacher saw him sitting alone. He asked Matthew about the problem. Mathew told him that he had no friends. His teacher called all the students. The teacher said that Mathew is a good boy. He is special. He gets the best grades. He makes the best project. The teacher asked the students to say sorry to Matthew. Everyone said sorry to Matthew. He now had many friends.